Note: Interesting auction – two auction rings part of the day. Frederick White of Willow Creek Farm in Damascus passed away on January 25. To celebrate his life, an auction will be held on May 20th. Fred was a hardworking man who was blessed with enviable creativity. He and his wife Donna purchased Willow Creek Farm in 1962 where they raised registered Hereford beef cattle and grew grain and hay. Fred’s titles included soldier, nuclear technician, inventor, forester, builder, woodworker, expert restorer of vintage bikes and furniture, musician, historian, writer, poet, lover of nature. This auction represents the lifetime of a man who loved God and his community. Each item for sale is a reflection of Fred’s passionate and creative spirit. The sale on May 20 isn’t just an auction, but a tribute to a life well lived.
